Migration and Related Trauma

Be a part of an open discussion with experts from across Long Island about issues surrounding equitable and culturally sensitive health care for undocumented immigrants in our communities. Learn about the work that is being done by various local organizations to address these needs and about community resources that are available at Stony Brook Medicine.

Who should attend: Open to the general public, this conference will be especially helpful to medical and mental health professionals, nonprofit agency stakeholders and their leadership.

Thursday, March 3
9 am to 1 pm
